EXPERIENCED ASSOCIATE ADDS EXPERTISE

Miss Nesheela Nazir has now joined Messrs Scotts Holt & Sellars, Solicitors, as an Associate Solicitor at “Steps House”, 10 St John Street, Bromsgrove. Nesheela said that she was delighted to be joining this firm of such long standing in Bromsgrove.

Nesheela is an experienced Solicitor who qualified in 2001. She deals with all areas of family law to include separation agreements, divorce (including those with an international element in particular relating to Islamic marriages), financial statements, private law contact/residence disputes involving children, domestic violence, pre-nuptial agreements and issues surrounding unmarried couples. Nesheela is fluent in Urdu, Punjabi and Patwaari and is a Member of Resolution and recognises and understands the sensitive nature of her work. Nesheela has experience in dealing with complex cases involving pensions, business elements and property/investment portfolios. Approachable and attentive, Nesheela said she is looking forward to developing the firm’s unrivalled and distinctive reputation.

Alan Morris, Senior Partner at Messrs Scotts Holt & Sellars, added that he was delighted that a Solicitor with Nesheela’s drive and renown had joined the Practice. He added: “We pride ourselves at Scotts Holt & Sellars in providing an efficient professional and friendly service to clients throughout Worcestershire and the West Midlands, and I am certain that Nesheela’s joining the firm will enhance this excellent reputation”.
